YarT Sale: January 19-26, 2024

Does one of your beautiful pieces of art no longer “fit” in your home but is still in fine condition? Might it look lovely in someone else’s home? This is a wonderful opportunity for fellow art lovers to add to their collection and for you to open up some wall space for a new love. We will accept paintings, photography, drawings, sculpture, and any other medium as long as it is an original work and has been gently used.

Sales of contributed pieces can be handled in two ways. The proceeds can be donated entirely to the Creative Arts Guild or can be split 50% between the Guild and the contributee. (If the donor is the artist, the split is 65% artist/35% Guild) We are willing to negotiate price on behalf of the owner only with written permission from the owner. This is not an auction and unsold work will be returned to the original owner.

All artwork should be in good condition, clean, and ready for display (must have hanging hardware if intended for wall display). Any information regarding original purchase price and location, artist, title, medium, etc, is highly appreciated.

Delivery/Pickup

The collector is responsible for delivery and pickup of work to the CAG. All unsold art must be picked up no later than Wednesday, January 31 unless special arrangements have been made. Any work not picked up by 1/31/24 will become the property of the Creative Arts Guild to retain as part of the Guild's collection or dispose of.

Accepted Work

Installation is the responsibility of the Creative Arts Guild unless other arrangements are made between the Guild and the collector/artist.

Sales

The collector may choose to receive 50% of the retail price of sales or donate the entire selling price to the Creative Arts Guild. The Creative Arts Guild will be responsible for handling all sales and collecting/reporting applicable sales tax. As required by federal law, we will mail you a 1099 form to collectors with sales over $600.

Documentation

The Creative Arts Guild reserves the right to photograph the show and to retain a set of images of all work exhibited. The materials will be used for educational, promotional, and archival purposes. Photographers, members of the media, educators, art students, and other artists may photograph your work.

Insurance

Every effort will be made to ensure proper handling, display, and security for all work. The Creative Arts Guild will provide insurance coverage on your piece(s) based on the value you assign to the work.
