

Please answer the following questions as completely as possible:

1. Reasons for Scholarship:

2. How will the applicant benefit from being involved in a Guild program?:

3. How will the applicant's involvement enhance the program?

4. List and describe any community activities the applicant is involved in this year. Include school activities, volunteer work, clubs, groups, cultural and/or any other activities which show the applicant's interests and commitments:

In order to be considered for a scholarship, the following provisions must be met:

- Applicant must attach 3 letters of recommendation. (Letters of recommendation can come from school teachers, coaches, group leaders, etc.)
- Applicant must attach family's/guardians' previous year's tax return to this packet. If parents/guardians file separately, both returns must be included.
- Applicant must perform at least 5 hours of Creative Arts Guild community volunteer hours in exchange for receiving a scholarship.
- Scholarship student must attend regularly scheduled classes. Repeated unexcused absences could result in revocation of scholarship.

It is the Creative Arts Guild's hope to be able to offer scholarships to deserving families that will hold the Guild in highest regard and promote the Guild's programs in both word and action.
