

YART SALE: JANUARY 21-28, 2022

Do you have a beautiful piece of art that just doesn't "fit" anymore but is still in good condition? This is a wonderful opportunity for other art lovers to add to their collections and a great way to trim your collection. Paintings, photography, drawings, sculpture. . . all original work, all gently loved and ready for a new home.

Owners may either donate the total amount of the sale to the Creative Arts Guild or sell your collection pieces at a 50% commission and receive 50% of the selling price (35% commission/65% for artists selling work). Pieces should be priced to sell by the owner. The Creative Arts Guild will negotiate prices the final week of the exhibit, only if prearrangements have been made with the owner. This is not an auction. Work not sold will be returned to the original owner.

Artwork should be in good condition, clean, and ready for display. Any information about the original purchase price, artist, title, etc is appreciated.

Delivery/Pickup

The collector is responsible for delivery and pickup of work to the CAG. All unsold art must be picked up no later than Thursday, February 24 unless special arrangements have been made. Any work not picked up 30 days following the end of the agreement will become the property of the Creative Arts Guild to retain as part of the Guild's collection or dispose of.

Accepted Work

Installation is the responsibility of the Creative Arts Guild unless other arrangements are made between the Guild and the collector/artist.

Sales

The collector may choose to receive 50% of the retail price of sales or donate the entire selling price to the Creative Arts Guild. The Creative Arts Guild will be responsible for handling all sales and collecting/reporting applicable sales tax. As required by federal law, we will mail you a 1099 form to collectors with sales over $600.

Payment

The collector will be paid for sold items within 30 days after the exhibit closes.

Documentation

The Creative Arts Guild reserves the right to photograph the show and to retain a set of slides of all work exhibited. The materials will be used for educational, promotional and archival purposes. Photographers, other than Creative Arts Guild staff, e.g., members of the media, educators, art students, and other artists may photograph your work.

Insurance

Every effort will be made to ensure proper handling, display and security for all work. The Creative Arts Guild will provide insurance coverage on your piece(s) based on the value you assign to the work.
